Out singer-songwriter and indie recording artist Michelle Malone celebrates the release of her latest CD, "Debris," which hit the shelves March 31, with a show at 8 p.m. April 7 at Tin Angel, 20 S. Second St. "Debris," Malone's 10th album, expected to be her most revealing to date, drawing from her southern influences to tackle the anger, heartbreak and humor found in a not-so-amicable break-up.
